

Author Guidelines

The length of the extended abstract of the paper should be between 1500 - 2000 words including the title page, main body, charts, tables, and figures. The Extended Abstract to have an Introduction, Review of Literature, Research Questions, Objectives, Research Methods, Results and Discussion, and Conclusion. References are not included in the word limit.

Along the same lines, the length of the full paper is not more than 4000 words.

Papers should be 1.5-line spacing throughout.

The font to be used is Times New Roman 12-point font. The page size should be A4 formatting. 2.54 cm margins should be used on all sides (left, right, top, bottom).

Endnotes, Headers, or Footers should not be used.

Format of Paper:

Title of the Paper (Capitalize the First Letter of Each Content Word - Not More Than 10 Words)

Author Details *First Author 1, Second Author 2, Third Author3 1Department, Name of Organization, City, Country (affiliation), e-mail, contact no 2Department, Name of Organization, City, Country (affiliation), e-mail, contact no 3Department, Name of Organization, City, Country (affiliation), e-mail, contact no

Abstract: 200 words exactly conveying the content of the article (i.e. purpose, methodology, major findings, and implications of the research)

Keywords (Include at least 3 keywords or phrases in alphabetical order, separated by commas)

Introduction: The background and objectives of the research/work should be detailed.

Literature Review: Relevant literature surveys should be detailed.

Research Methods: Methods employed in compiling the research/work should be explained.

Results and Discussions: Comprise clear and concise results as well as the significance of the results of the research

Conclusion: Main conclusions of the research/work should be based on the results and presented

References must be in American Psychological Association (APA) style and carefully checked for completeness, accuracy, and consistency.